Alaska Items
[From the British Colonist]

A gentleman who visited Alaska in the J L Stephens has furnished us with the following items connected with the trip and country

We arrived at New Archangel on Wednesday, Oct 9th, at about 2 o clock P M, all safe and sound, and everything lovely I found this a little the worst looking place I ever had the pleasure of visiting The town is built in a perfect marsh, lying right under high hills and mountains The buildings are formed of square hewn timber or logs and excepting that they must be warm are the most uncomfortable houses I have seen The inhabitants are very kind and I believe were inclined to be hospitable and to like Americans but things have somewhat changed, and I think they look upon us now as interlopers There is however, some very good society of well educated Russians The Governor Prince Maksoutoff and lady are very kind both speak very good English and are disposed to be sociable.

The Ossipee arrived here on Friday, the 18th inst, with the American and Russian Commissioners, and the transfer was completed on the same day The Russian flag got caught as it was being lowered (as though it did not like the change), but it was soon removed, and the stars and stripes went up with a full round of cheers from the assemblage

There is considerable misunderstanding in regard to the right of property here, General Davis claiming all the Company's houses, and intending immediately to use them for quarters Some of the employes of the company claim the houses in which they reside as their own, and I think the General will respect their claim There are very few Americans here, independent of the army and navy officers

It rains all the time and the sidewalks are consequently horrid We stay in doors most of the time I attended the Greek church the first Sunday after arrival (our Saturday) Their religion is somewhat like the Roman Catholic, differing in this that they deny the supremacy of the Pope and priests are allowed to marry once, but not a second time Their ceremonies are conducted in the Sclavonic language, which appears to be perfectly understood by the congregation There are no seats in the church—the congregation all standing There were, I should think, at least eight bishops, priests or assistants who conducted the ceremonies The music was delightful I was much surprised when I learned that the singers were all boys I never saw a religious ceremony where I was so much impressed by the devout manner and apparent fervor of the members Their contributions to the charitable fund are large On entering the church, there is a desk on the right hand side, at which stands a clerk who receives the donations The only persons I noticed who did not contribute were the strangers There is also an Indian Greek church and a chapel in the Bishop's house Then there is the Lutheran church In consequence of the absence of any priest of that denomination the use of it was obtained for Rev, Mr Rayner, Chaplain of the Army So we have had a little of our style of worship and on our own Sunday, and listened to a very excellent sermon on both occasions

THE BEST WAY TO FIGHT THE INDIANS.—In the grand council between the Indians and peace commissioners on the North Platte, Spotted Tail perorating held out an olive branch more covered with arrows and scalping knives than with green leaves He ascribed the existing hostilities to the construction of the Kansas Pacific railroad up the Smoky Hill river, and the Powder river wagon road He said, with savage energy "I want those roads stopped just where they are, or turned in some other direction " The Man That Walks-Under-the-Ground followed in a speech, in which he presented the ultimatum of his tribe "I want these roads stopped, just where they are, Don't disturb our game, and then you will have his " Pawnee-Killer next asserted himself against the development of the plains and the Rocky Mountains, and speedy intercourse between the Atlantic and Pacific States, and commerce between Asia and America "By stopping these roads I know you can get peace," he said, with tomahawking significance To him succeeded Turkey Foot, the leader of the Plum creek massacre, "Will the white people that travel this road and the Arkansas road listen to what you say ?" demanded he of the peace commissioners "If they will, then listen unto me Tell the great father to stop these roads the one on the Smoky Hill and the one on the Powder river I have done."

The Smoky Hill road will surely be built by the people of the United States It is as necessary to them as the Central railroad was to the people of the State of New York Nor will the vast grassy region between the thirtieth and forty third parallels of latitude, and the twenty-first and twenty-seventh parallels of longitude, be surrendered by the American people to any race of men to be used as a park to breed buffalo and antelope for the chase, and to be used to divide the Pacific and Rocky Mountain States from the rest of the confederacy, and compel trade and travel to make the detour of the Isthmus of Panama The temper of the Indians at the peace council indicates that a continuation of the war is inevitable If it is to continue, the best and most economical method of prosecuting it on our part is to hasten the completion of the Smoky Hill road, thereby securing a continuous line of settlements across the continent, and making every station and village on the route a base for military operations —N Y Tribune

THE GRANT FEVER—COMING ON AND GOING OFF —The impetus given to the Grant movement in the Republican ranks since the apparently authorized statement of Representative Washburn concerning his position is spreading everywhere In Philadelphia since the nomination of the General by the National Union Club, meetings have been held in every ward indorsing that nomination, and Grant Clubs are being organized with rapidity In this metropolis the key note was struck by Gens Cochrane and Martindale at the Republican Ratification Meeting, and there is a movement afoot for a Mass Convention of the party to make a formal nomination At the same time—and it is not "very curious "—the several Democratic Clubs recently formed here of the "just and true" friends of "Fight it out on this Line" are being rapidly dissolved The originators of those clubs have just found out that "Grant is no great shakes after all " and not fit to hold a candle to Little Mac — ... Cor Evening Bulletin

Speaking of the meteoric shower of the 15th of last month a correspondent of the Sacramento Union, says

"My attention was first attracted to a number of brilliant meteors or shooting stars in the northeastern heavens, about half past twelve o clock, at one o'clock they had increased in numbers and brilliancy, and from that time till fifteen minutes to two o'clock the stars appeared to be dancing to the music of the 'Harp of a Thousand Strings' From that hour they gradually decreased in numbers until I retired at five o'clock, when an occasional one could be observed. They appeared to be most numerous in the northeast heavens and generally took their course to the west and south Some of them were very brilliant, and had it not been for the bright full moon the display would have been equal, if not superior, to that of 1833 as the firmament appeared to glimmer with unseen flying stars "

NEW YORK THE DEAREST PLACE —The dearest living in the world is probably that which is procured in New York A comparative statement of prices in New York, Philadelphia, Paris, London Berlin, and other prominent cities in all parts of the world shows that New York is the most expensive of all in the matter of food. The whole cause of this social misfortune is said to be that the food itself comes to the consumers through too many middle men all of whom must make their percentage

The following advertisement appeared in the Aberdeen Herald

If the person who took (it is concluded by mistake) the white water proof coat belonging to Mr Pitt Taylor, on Tuesday last, will apply at the barracks, he can have the peg it used to hang upon, as it is of no farther use to the owner

The fines and costs paid by liquor dealers in Massachusetts since January 1st, amounts to about two hundred thousand dollars—nearly twice as much as the expenses of the State Constabulary

A member of a Pittsburg militia company has received, by accident, from the State the same gun which he carried for three years, during the war and finally left at Petersburg, Virginia.

The Pacific Mines—J Ross Browne's Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 —J Ross Browne, the Commissioner for the collection of mining statistics has just returned to Washington after an extended tour through the States and Territories of the Pacific coast, and is now at work on his official report, which embodies a great variety of important information connected with the development of the mining interest

Since the date of his preliminary report, printed by Congress in January last, he has had in the field an able corps of scientific and practical assistants, whose researches extended over the entire mineral region west of the Rocky Mountains, from the borders of Sonora to British Columbia. Each district is described in detail, and statistics are given of the yield and practical working of every prominent mine in the country, with comparative statements showing the results of existing processes for the concentration and amalgamation of ores and the necessity of improved systems of reduction It is estimated that the loss resulting from the present wasteful methods of extracting the precious metals from the ores does not fall short of $15 000 000 per annum, of which a large percentage might be saved by the establishment of a national mining school. The general condition of the mining interest is represented to be healthy and prosperous, and the development of the Pacific slope in respect to all branches of industry is said to be absolutely wonderful. The opening of steam communication with China, and the rapid progress of the Pacific Railroad have stimulated enterprise in various directions, and the prospect of a large increase of population within the next two or three years has already created a demand for extensive tracts of agricultural lands. In view of the growing importance of our Pacific possessions, and the advantage to be derived from a correct knowledge of their resources, it is suggested that Congress will print a large number of the Commissioner's report in two or three languages, and facilitate its circulation both at home and in foreign countries.

Among the interesting facts noted in connection with the development of the mining interests is one but little if at all known to the public, namely the persistent efforts made by Manuel Castanares, in 1844, to attract the attention of the Mexican Government to the importance of the gold placer deposits in California, which even at that day were represented as covering a region nearly thirty leagues in extent, embracing many rich placers since made known to the world by the enterprise of the American people

Brown's report will be submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury at an early day.

The statistical returns of production are not yet completed, but it is probable they will not vary materially from the following summary

Montana	$12,000,000	Idaho	$ 6,000,000
Oregon	2,000,000	Colorado	5,000,000
Nevada	19,000,000	California	25,000,000
Miscellaneous, for the present year			5,000,000

Indian disturbances have somewhat retarded the progress of mining operations in Montana and Idaho, and almost completely put a stop to that branch of industry in Arizona. Oregon is beginning to assume an important position as an iron-producing State The iron works on the Willamette river are in full blast and producing most satisfactory results, averaging nine tons a day of first class quality of iron The wheat and flour exports of California this year will not fall far short of ten millions of dollars, and the manufactures alone are represented to amount to considerably more than the gold product.

The wine crop this year will amount to three millions of dollars While there is a falling off in the gold product, other branches of industry afford more than a counterbalance.

The Next President—The Chicago Tribune out for Grant.

[From the ...]

There is no man in all the broad land who is so strongly commended to all the whole people by his virtues and his public fidelity, as General Grant. He unites in his own person more of the sterling attributes which should characterize the President of a free and republican Government than any other man now living ... is no false pretence about Grant. He is wholly all he appears to be, and more His modesty and his reticence are not the affectation of a demagogue, but the natural incidents of real worth. His patriotism and ability are evidenced by his acts and not by his words alone His inflexible devotion to the principles of freedom and equality is witnessed by every act of his personal and official life It is rarely that the country has an opportunity of electing to the Presidency a man who combines such a ... executive ability, sound political sentiments and purity of personal character as does Gen Grant. Politically, his nomination is commended by the strongest considerations

1. If elected, the policy of the Administration will fully reflect the sentiments of the Republican party

2 If nominated, he will be elected beyond all doubt, and without very serious opposition

3 He will possess more than any other man can, the confidence of the whole people of both sections, white and black

4 He will immediately proceed to re-adjust the finances, establish strict responsibility and accountability in every branch of the service With that inherent regard for the public interest already shown in his brief administration of the War Office, he will abate all sinecures, put an end to all useless offices, retrench the expenditures of the Government and, by a thorough and complete reorganization of the Government, bring the expenses of the nation to a scale of the most rigid economy A reduction of taxation by the reduction of national expenditures will be a double blessing, of which the country has had some practical experience in General Grant's administration of the one branch of the service under his charge

The Republican party is utterly excluded from the executive branch of the Government, except in the War Department It cannot strike at the abuses the sinecures, the fat jobs, the frauds and corruptions which exist in all the other branches and departments of the Government, until it can get an Executive animated with its own zeal, entertaining the same determination to reform, reduce and economize the whole system of public expenditure, and there is no other public man upon whom the country can rely with such certainty in this matter as upon Gen Grant

The Chicago Tribune, zealous for the interests of the country, and believing that the liberty is wrested from peril by the war can only be preserved by placing their protection in hands unsullied and faithful, urges and will continue to urge upon the Republican party the wisdom of a union of the whole American people by the nomination and election of Gen Grant to the Presidency in 1868

WILLOW CREEK MINES —From the Owyhee Avalanche, of the 16th, we obtain the following

We are indebted to J P Dye, Esq just returned from the Willow Creek diggings, for the following information These mines are situated 130 miles from Silver City—does not consider them very rich, but is of the opinion that a large scope of country, embracing many gulches, will pay from four to eight dollars per day There is very little water to be had at present for mining purposes A company has commenced digging a ditch, which will be sixty miles in length, and bring water from near the source of Burnt river Nine or ten miles are already completed, but it will probably be eighteen months before the ditch is finished The gold is of good quality, very fine, and worth about $17 per oz. There is a good supply of timber from ten to fifteen miles of the new diggings There are two or three small trading posts established, with only a limited supply of goods Probably not more than one hundred people winter there The Statesman puts the number at not less than five hundred, which must include all those in the vicinity of Mormon Basin To conclude Mr Dye, who has had much experience thinks that if a sufficient quantity of water could be had the diggings would pay good wages and last twelve or fifteen years

LUCKY FOR BRUCE.—Horace Greeley, in his Ledger "Recollections" speaking of the time he commenced in the printing business, says "I tried Mr James Conner, the extensive type founder, in Ann street, but he, after hearing me patiently, decided not to credit me six months for the $40 worth of type I wanted, and he did right. My exhibit did not justify my request. I went directly then to Mr George Bruce, the older and wealthier founder, in Chambers street, made the same exhibit and was allowed by him the credit I asked, and that purchase has since secured to this concern the sale of not less than $50,000 worth of type "

EDITOR ...

Some time since I noticed that one of your correspondents suggested the idea of formation of "Grant Clubs" throughout the entire State. I write this note to endorse the idea. Let us have a regular organization in every election precinct in Oregon—let every Republican, every Union man, and every lover of liberty enroll his name under the banner of Grant and Colfax, then work for the cause, and success will crown their efforts —first in our State election next June, and second, in the Presidential election next fall.

Frauds on the Revenue.

That gross frauds have been perpetrated upon the United States revenue in many places during the last two years, is a fact which has been formally made known by official investigation. The rascality of the revenue officers in several of the great States has defrauded the Government to the amount of $100,000,000 in the tax on whisky alone, within a single year. A statement has been made several times of late in the telegraphic dispatches that "the President is determined to correct these abuses." About a week ago some of Johnson's personal organs all[illegible] to this subject, earnestly assuring the country that "official corruption and inefficiency" were to be punished, and that no mercy would be shown to the herd of thieves who were using the advantages afforded by their official positions to defraud Government. A later dispatch states the President desires to thoroughly reorganize several departments of the service, with a view to secure more efficient administration. He might have reorganized them some time ago, and with great advantage to the country, simply by putting honest men in office. The fraudulent transactions which continually take place in the revenue department, are the legitimate consequences of Johnson's system of appointing unscrupulous adventurers to office, of turning out in many instances those who would not so far forget their manhood as to follow him in his career of apostasy, and of informing others that they would be continued in office only on condition of their supporting his "policy." Prior to the elections of 1866, while he was endeavoring to nourish and force into vigorous growth the sickly "Conservative" party which was born at the [illegible] Philadelphia Convention, this system of corruption in making appointments was practiced extensively in New York, Pennsylvania and other States which he hoped to carry by means of [illegible]; and the natural consequence is "corruption and inefficiency" in the management of the [illegible] important affairs of Government. The [illegible] are generally Johnson's [illegible], bought up by him with [illegible] and he and his [illegible] (if he has any) are [illegible] [illegible] a man who is purchased in this way considers that he has full [illegible] the [illegible] method by which [illegible]

There [illegible] reform in the civil service so that [illegible] The buying up of [illegible] and the [illegible] of administration [illegible] with the [illegible] which the [illegible] need that something be done at [illegible] and prevent for the future this [illegible]

Lincoln monuments [illegible] a broken Union, a violated Constitution, a debt of [illegible] thousand millions, [illegible] upon the labor of every workingman!

It is [illegible] to fill every honest man with shame to be compelled to know that there is a political party in this [illegible] by which [illegible] editorial [illegible] its exponent and representative; which voluntarily accepts him as an advocate; which [illegible] and [illegible], which chuckles with gratification or [illegible] with delight at the [illegible] of such [illegible] sentiments. But this is "Democracy," and we [illegible] not avoid seeing it as it is.

"DISLOYALTY."—At the opening of the present session of Congress the Democratic members for the first time since the rebellion urged "disloyalty" as a disqualification for admission into that body. Certain members from [illegible] are alleged to be disloyal and their admission is opposed on this ground by Democratic patriots who [illegible] year ago [illegible] and stood ready to vote for the [illegible] of sundry [illegible] Senators, Governors and Congressmen. It is sweet to hear such objections from such a source. In the mutations of [illegible] we find the representatives of that party actively opposing the restoration of the Union and preferring charges of "disloyalty" against those who present themselves for admission into Congress. The avowed policy of that party is to prevent as long as possible the consummation of reconstruction. Democrats urging "disloyalty" as a reason why members should not be admitted into Congress! [DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—An affray occurred last night in a house of ill-fame on Sacramento street, during which Frank Lyons shot Mrs. Kelter through the cheek, and a girl called Nellie, through the neck. Both women were severely but not dangerously wounded. The quarrel arose about a bottle of wine which Lyons and his friend drank and refused to pay for. The women were attempting to prevent them from leaving the house, when Lyons shot them.

A two-mile race for a purse of $2,000 was run at San Mateo, Shell Park, yesterday, between Transit and Susie H. Moore, and Ten Broeck. It was won by Transit in two straight heats; 3:40 2-5, and 3:48 2-5.

It is proposed to introduce the Caledonian games here with great eclat on thanksgiving day. A number of appropriate and costly prizes have been provided.

The steamer Golden City arrived from Panama yesterday morning. By her we learn that the ship Asia was wrecked on Parnasel Island, off Cape Horn, on August 21st. The officers and crew remained on the desert island for 31 days, suffering every hardship, and were in a starving condition when finally rescued by the bark Professor Airy.

Last evening Edwin Lunn fell under a truck that he was driving, and the wheels passed over his feet, crushing his feet in a horrible manner.

The Metropolitan theatre was opened last night by Chas. Wheatleigh, in "Under the Gaslights." The house was crowded and Wheatleigh was welcomed with thunders of applause, concluding with three cheers. "Under the gaslight" will prove a success.

FROM THE NORTH.

OLYMPIA, Nov. 25.—The owners of the opposition steamer New World sold out to the old line on Saturday last. Captain Finch and associates now control both steamers. The New World did not leave her wharf this morning. The Anderson sailed at 7 A. M., taking the mail, freight and passengers.

A young man, supposed to be of Irish descent, named Clifford, employed at the Tacoma hotel as steward, destroyed his life by taking morphine. He died about 11 o'clock this morning. The cause is said to be unrequited love and dissipation.

MRS. LINCOLN.—We find the following article in the Springfield (Illinois) Journal of October 23. The editor of that paper is a nephew of Mrs. Lincoln. It would seem, indeed, that the misfortunes of this lady have bereft her of her reason. The bullet which took the life of her husband has brought her to a condition worse than death. We trust that the feelings of the surviving members of her family will no longer be lacerated by unscrupulous politicians, on account of the acts of the unfortunate lady, in her present state of mind:

In a New York journal we find the following extraordinary notice, which cannot fail to startle our citizens from their propriety:

SUBSCRIPTIONS IN AID OF MRS. LINCOLN.

609 BROADWAY, Oct. 14, 1867.

To the Editor of the World—SIR: I am authorized by Mrs. Abraham Lincoln to receive subscriptions for her at my [illegible], 609 Broadway. Will you let me through the editorial columns of your paper [illegible]

Respectfully, WILLIAM B. BRADY, Commercial Broker.

There certainly can be no longer a doubt as to the insanity of the lady in question. Her conduct, so contrary to everybody's ideas of propriety, can be explained on no other hypothesis; and the newspaper press of the country, instead of longer indulging in their harsh and uncharitable criticisms against the unfortunate woman, should rather extend their pity and commiseration.

An exchange says "it is estimated that Maine has water power enough, if used, to support five million of souls. She would then not be as populous as the British Isles. In the southern basin of the State there are at least a million of horse power." If the State which has the greatest amount of water power can support the greatest number of inhabitants, then Oregon can support a population larger than that of any other two States in the Union. If the water power of Maine is sufficient to support five million souls, Oregon will support fifteen million souls and bodies, too.

The San Francisco Examiner, speaking of the Lost Cause,—Pollard's History of the War—says: "We heartily commend it to all seekers after truth. It is the only history of the war from a Democratic stand point." This is a frank avowal of the truth. Pollard is a violent traitor and therefore a model Democrat.

The Cincinnati Gazette says the Democratic mind is relieved of one concern. The defeat of the franchise amendment saves them from having to marry "niggers." Democratic love for the negro female will now be free from the marriage bonds, [illegible] of love and not of law will be the tender.

The New York Day Book says the "[illegible] who ran after Sheridan would run after Old John Brown." It is certain that the same creatures (the Day Book's friends) who ran from Sheridan did also run from old Ossawattamie Brown and his "army" of seventeen negroes.

NEED MORE RECONSTRUCTION.—The Washington Chronicle has the following account of the [illegible] of the South behave themselves:

A few weeks ago General Swayne appointed an exemplary colored man, named Alexander Webb, to act as register under the reconstruction act in one of the districts in Alabama. He was a saddler by trade, and had just purchased a small patch of ground and erected upon it a little tenement of his own, in which he had opened a shop. He had secured the confidence of the community by his industry and unusual intelligence; but when he was selected, a man named Orrick, one of Mosby's gang, said that he never would allow himself to be registered by a negro; so when the day came, Orrick entered the office of registration, and, approaching Webb with a smile and a hearty welcome, drew his pistol and fired three balls, which entered Webb's heart, of course producing instant death. Orrick quietly escaped, and though it is given out that he has gone to Honduras, nobody doubts that he is still in the neighborhood. Webb died, leaving a young family by a second wife. When the knowledge of the tragedy reached Washington, a meeting of the Republicans of this city concluded to take the eldest child and place him in the Howard University, where he will be educated.

POPULATION AND WEALTH OF KANSAS.—The forthcoming report of the Surveyor General of Kansas will show that that State now has a population of 360,000; number of acres improved, 2,000,000, or one twenty-fifth of the value of the whole area; value of live stock, $40,300,000; value of crops for 1867, $35,375,000; value of farm and agricultural implements, $40,000,000.

The circulation of Harper's Magazine is now 115,000; that of the Weekly is from 85,000 to 90,000.

A NOTED CLERGYMAN AND PUBLIC LECTURER says of "[illegible] Bronchial Troches:" "In all my lecturing tours, I put Troches into my carpet bag as regularly as I do lectures or linen." Public speakers, vocalists, and all who exercise the voice, should never fail of using the Troches. They surpass all other preparations in clearing and strengthening the voice, removing hoarseness, allaying irritation of the throat, and as a cough remedy they are the best.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO, BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

GOOD FOR OREGON.—Another source of revenue to the State has been created. We notice several shipments of Henley's Royal Balsam to California, and as soon as the bottles can be manufactured a large order will be filled from New York. The curative properties of this medicine are appreciated abroad as well as at home. See the certificates of several prominent citizens of the State on fourth page.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

Manufactures of the United States.—We are indebted to Hon. J. H. D. Henderson, ex-member of Congress, for a copy of the "Manufactures of the United States in 1860, compiled from the original returns of the 8th census." In the introductory article entitled "Preliminary Views," we find a very well written account, in brief, of the progress made by our country between the years 1810 and 1860, in the line of manufactures. The total value of all the manufactures in 1810 was less than two hundred millions of dollars; in 1860, they amounted to two thousand millions of dollars, or an increase of eighteen hundred millions. The ratio of multiplication of manufactures was 10 for a period of 50 years, while the ratio of increase of population was only four and a half. This increase, so astonishing and incomprehensible to the old world, is attributed by the writer, chiefly to the "science, artisan-skill, industry and energy of the American people in the great department of manufactures." In remarking upon the means by which the people of the United States were able to meet and overcome the late gigantic rebellion, the writer says: "It was the manufacturing and mechanical resources and the granaries of the West which enabled the republic to arm, subsist and pay immense armies and create iron-clad fleets to meet the emergency. It was mainly for the want of these, and not for the lack of courage, will or skill, that the revolt failed. A more striking illustration of the value and power of such resources is not to be found in history." The introduction, proper, fills 217 pages of the size of the Congressional Globe, absolutely crammed with [illegible] of an interesting and useful character. The body of the work, consisting of tabular statements of manufactures and their values, contains 745 pages. The statements show the products of each State by counties. Oregon is credited with the value of $2,976,761, for the year ending June 1st, 1860. The product of greatest value was flour, $1,172,050. The next greatest was sawed lumber, $[illegible]. The least value mentioned was bookbinding, $300. The cost of labor to produce the flour was $58,[illegible]; the lumber cost in labor, $210,312. Multnomah county, of the total sum of manufactures, produced $467,667, the largest amount in the table. Marion county was next, producing $414,[illegible]. Umpqua had the smallest product, only $[illegible]. Could similar statistics for the year 1867 be [illegible], [illegible] would show figures so much better that even the most credulous would be astonished.

Credit Where [illegible] is Due.—Our item of yesterday morning, in relation to the attempted suicide of Charles G[illegible], gave the credit of [illegible] him from the water to an employee on board the Reserve. Our informant gave us the wrong locality and the wrong [illegible] of the steamer, and hence we gave the wrong credit. Charles jumped over board from Couch & Flanders's wharf just [illegible] of the steamer Alert, and he was rescued by Mr. [illegible], a deck hand on the latter steamer. This was the [illegible] rescue of a drowning man by employees of the Alert within forty-four hours. Saturday evening as the Couch was brought up to her wharf, one of her wheels struck a small boat in which was a Chinese fisherman, and [illegible] into stove wood, leaving the Chinaman to trust to [illegible] and his own accomplishments as a swimmist to get [illegible]. John didn't seem to render any appreciable [illegible], and John didn't act as though he was the [illegible] of swimming; and so the case looked for a [illegible] to be [illegible] whether John [illegible] eat fish again or be eaten by the fishes. At this [illegible], Mr. Ben. McGill, the mate of the Alert and one of the other employees got out their small boat and, rowing out to the floundering Celestial, hauled him in.

[illegible] Judge [illegible].—The following are the [illegible] of the Circuit Court, Monday, Nov. 25th:

[illegible] vs. M. C. Victor; majority verdict of jury [illegible] finding [illegible] for plaintiff [illegible] $1[illegible] one juror being [illegible].

Charles [illegible] vs. [illegible] Mary Kuhn; plaintiff granted a divorce. Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for plaintiff.

[illegible] Grayson vs. John B. Grayson; plaintiff granted a divorce and $100 [illegible].

[illegible] vs. A. [illegible]; action on [illegible] note; judgment by default, in favor of plaintiff for [illegible].

[illegible] vs. John M. Tice; action on [illegible]; [illegible] of [illegible], justice of the peace, [illegible].

State of Oregon vs. John Brown; convicted of petit [illegible] to six [illegible] in the penitentiary.

A [illegible] Lone One.—Yesterday morning, at the time of the accident to Mr. Herrall's boy, [illegible], Mr. A. H. Johnson's market team was [illegible] in front of his shop, the wagon having in it a part of a load of [illegible] nearly a ton. [illegible] the team took French leave and went up [illegible] at a good [illegible] pace, if not a fast one. The load was too heavy for any such time as made by the [illegible] horses of the United States; but the team got along [illegible] faster than any of the pursuers on foot, [illegible] their way up Front, [illegible] clear of all [illegible] with wonderful dexterity, till they [illegible]. Here they turned up and [illegible] them near the Catholic school house. [illegible] enough, no [illegible] to either team, [illegible]. The only loss Mr. Johnson sustained [illegible], in running [illegible], and three [illegible] were jolted out of the wagon.

[illegible] Company.—The St. Helens [illegible] and [illegible] Co., formerly only a partnership, yesterday drew up and signed articles of [illegible], the [illegible] being the [illegible], J. [illegible], S. B. Abbott, J. H. [illegible] and [illegible] Dart. Mr. [illegible] Ladd is also an [illegible]. The [illegible] of the corporation is now, the "St. Helens Mill Co.;" capital stock, $80,000 in shares of $100 each; principal business office at St. Helens. They [illegible] to do a general lumbering business in Oregon, Washington Territory and California. Mr. S. B. Abbott will go to San Francisco about the first of January next for [illegible] and [illegible] a large lumber yard in that city. The articles of incorporation will be filed in the office of the Secretary of State to-day. The company have already a first class mill and intend to erect soon [illegible] important additions. They are making more [illegible] per day, probably, than any other [illegible] mill in the State.

The Future of Daily Newspaper Editors.—The local [illegible] of the Albany Commercial has a level head and a [illegible] law of [illegible], as applied to editors of daily newspapers, thusly: "A [illegible] upon daily [illegible] paper. [illegible] that eternal [illegible] awaits the faithful publisher and printer, when, [illegible] his last form, he passes over the dark [illegible] that roll between time and eternity. The belief is [illegible] on the fact that any [illegible] that works faithfully at his [illegible] in this world, sees and feels enough of hell to last him through all eternity. We [illegible] only subscribe to the doctrine. The great laws of compensation that [illegible] all nature sustain it. Cheered and soothed by this faith, we plod along and bear the slings and arrows of [illegible] fortune, in the certain hope that a final rest in that comfortable country where slow gas factories, lazy mail agents, [illegible] telegraph companies, libel suits and short-[illegible] are unknown."

I. Pursuant to Special Order No. 219, current series, Head Quarters of the Army, I have assumed the command of the Department of the Columbia.

II. The Department Staff of General Steele, as it was when he relinquished [illegible] of the Department, will for the present [illegible].

III. [illegible] at David Q. [illegible], 14th Infantry, is [illegible] as Aide de Camp.

Col. [illegible] Jones, of Gen. Halleck's staff, and Inspector General of the Division of the Pacific, and Bt. Col. M. A. Reno, Inspector General of the Department of the Columbia, [illegible] last evening by the Fideliter, having just [illegible] an inspecting tour of the posts on Puget Sound. Col. Jones, having accomplished his mission to this [illegible], will return to San Francisco by the next [illegible].

[illegible] by a Horse.—A boy of some twelve or fourteen years of age, a son of Mr. George Herrall, met with an [illegible] of a somewhat [illegible] nature, yesterday [illegible]. He was riding a horse rather rapidly down [illegible] st. and turning into Front without checking his speed, the horse [illegible] and fell heavily upon the pavement, [illegible] the boy. The horse regained his feet before the boy could get his [illegible] out of the stirrup, and began at once to run. One of the boy's feet hung fast in the stirrup, and in this position he was dragged as far as the [illegible] where the horse was fortunately stopped [illegible] from his perilous situation. The boy was, at the time, supposed to be seriously hurt, as his head was swung with considerable force against an awning post, during the short but terrible race.

P[illegible].—Our Sanctum has lately been almost over[illegible] by callers whose names are not altogether to fame unknown—members of the press, members of the Washington Territory Legislature, dignitaries of the church and of the courts, etc. Among the number we may [illegible] Mr. P. B. J[illegible], of Walla Walla, who is a brick; Bro. Ireland, of the Enterprise, who had his black carpet sack along; Mr. Winans, of Colville, who is [illegible] to serve a term in the W. T. Legislature; Wyche, who is a Judge, and on his way to Olympia; and [illegible], to all of whom we shall be happy to extend a friendly greeting at any future time when they may [illegible] to [illegible] their sunny countenances.

A Heavy Old Joe.—One of our California exchanges, in a brief notice of Prof. Wackenreuder, says: "He has for a long time been engaged in locating the prominent features of the Sierras." We confess to a little surprise at this information. We had supposed that a much [illegible] man than Prof. Whackenbruder had located the "prominent features of the Sierras" some years ago—longer ago than the Prof. now can, probably, remember. We recollect having seen some of those "prominent features" in 1850, and all we have to say is, that if Prof. Whack[illegible] really located them, he is a bully boy, as far as [illegible] goes.

[illegible] to Hair It.—A late fashion letter says: "There is not much change in the mode of arranging the hair." The more's the pity. The plaited and twisted rope-coils of hair and grass, etc., of the chignons, are perpetual horrors. Hair combed back from the forehead till the wearer cant shut her eyes, and combed up from the neck and back head till she cant nod her head, does not contribute to either beauty or grace, whatever it may do in making up style.

Another New Steamer.—Captain Kellogg, of the P. T. Co., has been some time up in the brush regions of the Tualatin, attending to the finishing of the Co.'s new steamer. He says she will be completed some time next week. One of the Oregon City jokingers informs us that Captain Pease has named the new boat launched at Canemah some time ago, the Short Stop. We suspect this to be a slight dig at the Captain's weakness for base ball.

Willamette Freights.—Arrived, per steamer Alert, from Oregon City yesterday, 1 bale woolen goods, 404 bags wheat, 1 hf bbl and 5 bxs produce, 31 bbls beef, 1,011 qr sacks flour, 6 bales, 3 cases and 3 trunks mdse, 134 sacks bran, 10 sacks screenings, 25 gunnies [illegible], [illegible] pkgs [illegible]ware, 9 gunnies fruit.

Cross-Walks.—Notwithstanding many of our cross-walks have been lately constructed, most of them, old or new, are in a horribly muddy condition—absolutely difficult for ladies to cross. If we are correctly informed, there is no provision beyond what private enterprise may do for keeping them clean. Why cannot the business men and residents on street corners manifest a little public spirit and have them scraped off occasionally?

Temperance Library Association.—The Temperance Library Association held a special meeting last evening and elected the following officers: Jacob Stitzel, President; James A. Waters, Secretary; J. B. Garrison, Treasurer. The board of Directors are Messrs. Jacob Stitzel, J. B. Garrison, James A. Waters, W. S. Stevens, C. Crich, C. Stewart and J. S. Kidder.

Steam Boiler for Salem.—We noticed yesterday a large steam boiler on the P. T. Co.'s wharf, marked "J. N. M. & Co., Salem," designed as we learned for J. N. Matheny & Co.'s new steam ferry boat. If the boat is as large in proportion as the boiler it will be one of the hugest things of its kind since Noah's ark was a scull boat.

From Below.—The steamer Fideliter arrived last evening, from Victoria. She reports having seen the Falkinburg off the Columbia bar, awaiting an opportunity to get in. The Fideliter was detained several days in Neah Bay, by heavy and foggy weather.

Recorder's Court.—The only case before the Recorder, yesterday, was that of the city vs. Wm. Seymour; disorderly conduct—riding a horse into a house on Front street; defendant plead guilty and was fined $5 and costs.

Sale of Furs.—Remember the special sale of furs, to-day, at Falk & Kramer's auction rooms. The lot comprises a large variety of choice and handsome goods and good bargains may be looked for.

Barman's new Fall and Winter styles of Clothing have just arrived by the Montana, and will be opened to-day. All who have been waiting for the latest and best styles, can get them by calling at Barman's, corner of Front and Morrison.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a regular meeting of Portland Lodge, No. 20, I. O. G. T., held at their hall Thursday, Nov. 21, 1867, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

To the W. C. T., Officers and Members of Portland Lodge, No. 20, I. O. G. T.:—Your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of this Lodge upon the death of brother J. H. Fagan, beg leave to submit the following:

Whereas, It has pleased Him "whose ways are past finding out," and whose dealings with the children of men are beyond our limited comprehension, to remove suddenly from our midst, by a sad accident, our worthy brother, H. J. Fagan, in the prime of life, and the vigor of manhood, therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to Him "who doeth all things well," our hearts are pained within us by this inroad which death has made upon our sacred circle, and the broken link that is thus left in our fraternal band.

Resolved, That in the death of brother Fagan this Lodge has lost an earnest and faithful member, the order a true friend and supporter, and his family a true relation, kind brother and son.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That the charter of this Lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be forwarded to the papers of this city and the Corvallis Gazette for publication, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

All of which is respectfully submitted in Faith, Hope and Charity.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action and free from all injurious properties.

DR. C. W. COOL
Has Returned to Portland, and can be found at his residence on Third St., bet. Alder and Washington.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS DENTAL SERVICES might do well to give him a call. He is making a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE; the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one-third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two-and-a-half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

Price for upper teeth, $50; full set, upper and lower, $75 00. oc31dtf

ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, of both sexes, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU. It will give brisk and energetic feelings, and enable you to sleep well.

OREGONIANS should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to attacks of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters are the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

FOR NON-RETENTION or INCONTINENCE of Urine, irritation, inflammation, or ulceration of the bladder or kidneys, diseases of the prostrate glands, stone in the bladder, calculus, gravel or brick dust deposits, and all diseases of the bladder, kidneys and dropsical swellings, Use HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Acting as a gentle and painless [illegible], as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation [illegible] by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Boarding-House

The Boston Gazette's "Old Apple Man" gives the following It might be called Longfellow's "Springfield Arsenal" in masquerade

This is a boarding house; from floor to ceiling
Are odors redolent of dainty food,
And years on years roll back, the past revealing
And hopes then planted long since gone to see[illegible]

I see the landlord le[illegible]ing on the boarders,
Brandishing his glistening carving knife in air
To cut such food as fortune might afford us
And eking out to each his slender share

I see before me there the landlord's daughter
Plump in the amplitude of youthful charms
'Twas she that filled our tumblers up with water,
And filled our hearts with tenderest alarms

And then the landlady with turban simple,
Holding within its folds its locks of gray,
Of human goods she was a precious sample,
But all unwarranted she pa[illegible] away

And that great crowd of boarders, hunger whetted,
Whose souls were gauged by greed of appetite
Alas! they died, or married much regretted,
Fools of their own or Fate's determined spite.

O pregnant memory of things long banished
That causeth now my bosom's heart to swell!
The scenes of old, long from existence vanished,
Come back to being through that well known smell

Whitefield's Oratory

Needs there the praise of the love written record,
The name and the epitaph graved on the [illegible]
The things we have lived for—let them be our story
We ourselves but remembered by what we have done
—Bonar

In popular pulpit eloquence George Whitefield was probably the greatest preacher of all the Christian churches For noble, manly appearance, music of voice, pathos, impassioned fervor expression, he was seldom equalled and never excelled—the beau ideal of an extemporaneous preacher [illegible] two miles distance, [illegible] his voice was heard, repeating the verse

'And He spread [illegible] —, saying

Franklin, the American philosopher, heard him and [illegible] his heart, when Whitefield described the blind beggar by the [illegible] and [illegible] "the man is gone!" Even David Garrick, the [illegible] of actors, said he would make men laugh or cry by the utterance of the simple word "Mesopotamia!" The sooty colliers of Newcastle listened to him until the tears made channels on their dark faces In using the interjection "O, O!" he could affectingly bring to the [illegible] of his hearers Olivet, Cedron Gethsemane, and the weeping, praying Saviour. Men even died under the influence of his powerful preaching. Whilst once delivering his solemn message to twenty thousand [illegible], "We [illegible] appear before the judgment seat of Christ," a shriek was heard in the crowd. Grimshaw, an assistant minister [illegible] to the [illegible] "Brother Whitefield," he cried, "[illegible] is here, my dead and [illegible]." Again the preacher began, when another shriek was heard, and the second time the crowd learned that [illegible] soul had departed. What gloom and [illegible] this most [illegible]

W[illegible], in the first love of his Master, had gone [illegible] to Georgia; but Whitefield re[illegible] in England had startled the metropolitan churches, [illegible] apostol[illegible] zeal, he embarked for the same field of Christian [illegible] the British [illegible] Whitefield [illegible] He was ex[illegible] the pulpits of the establishment, and he, as it were, crossed the Rubicon on the 17th of February, 1739, [illegible] air, following the example of his adorable Master, [illegible] that Christ had the heavens for his [illegible] board, with a hill for his pulpit. On one [illegible] he preached during a [illegible] from the text, "The glory of God [illegible]" Hanging around him the people [illegible] While the red rays [illegible] from the [illegible] Where will you be, my [illegible] "List," he [illegible] the thunder's deep roll resound [illegible] he paused, [illegible] and covering [illegible] the clouds at last [illegible] away, and the bow in the [illegible] It [illegible] the gleam [illegible] the Bow [illegible] of Bristol [illegible] and [illegible] crowded [illegible] the fairs and [illegible] of [illegible] and Kensington [illegible] their audi[illegible] twenty, fifty, and [illegible]times even sixty thousand people. [illegible] The population, [illegible] from the moral deg[illegible]

Kingswood, not far from Bristol, had formerly been a [illegible] was now a [illegible] of coal mines, inhabited by a lawless and [illegible] the [illegible] in [illegible] If any [illegible] no church [illegible] and on Saturday, February 17th, [illegible] the [illegible] two hundred [illegible] "Blessed be God," he [illegible] the ice is now broken, and I have [illegible] the field. Some may censure me, but is [illegible] not a cause? Pulpits are denied, and the poor [illegible] for [illegible] In this new field his [illegible] full play, and his [illegible] The [illegible] and [illegible] and he [illegible] of the sun shining very bright, whilst the people stood "in such [illegible] as to fill him with a holy admi[illegible] to hear the singing of the mighty [illegible] the spirits of the just [illegible] made perfect in heaven, when they [illegible] the song of [illegible] and the Lamb forever! [illegible] poor colliers rejoiced to hear that Christ was a friend to publicans, and came not to call the [illegible] but sinners to repentance [illegible] hundreds became deeply impressed [illegible] to preach also on the [illegible] in Bristol, and thousands as[illegible] to [illegible] the novel scene. Excluded [illegible] all the churches, he traversed a large portion [illegible] and highways. Visiting Kensington Common, he [illegible] a vast multitude, when scores [illegible] hundreds of [illegible], with thirty or forty [illegible] on foot, thronged to hear him

MARRIAGE.—The editor of the New York [illegible] we have been asked by some of their young lady [illegible] if they believed with the Apostle Paul that it is best not to marry. To this [illegible] reply as follows: The fact that the [illegible] of this advice are bachelors, does not, we [illegible] against its [illegible]

Yes, dear girls. That [illegible] upon [illegible] is like a blacksmith's [illegible] a very handy and useful article to [illegible], if you need it and can manage it, and [illegible] go to mixing the [illegible] the alkali of genuine love be added, in which case you have soap and smoothness, and glide through life easily. Or we may vary the expression a little, and we may say love is a solvent which unites [illegible], it is delightful, it is powerful; but the [illegible] is that a great many people are fatally apt to mistake a weak solution of sentiment and romance for the genuine extract whose [illegible] will last through life. Don't be in a hurry to try these chemical experiments for [illegible] Chemical experiments are better than chignons, and housekeeping should be studied under your mamma's tuition before you try chemistry under your own. In this matter don't be [illegible] to take Time by the forelock, lest he roughly take off your locks, the bloom from your cheeks, and the light from your eyes.

STILL PLOTTING —A reliable Canadian correspondent says he knows from personal knowledge that the rebel chiefs in Canada, Jeff Davis, Jacob Thompson, Toombs, Breckinridge, and others, have not yet given up the [illegible] of their plots for [illegible] He has [illegible] very freely with Toombs and Thompson at Toronto. They tell him they are in Canada for the double purpose of selecting lands for the colonization of their friends who will emigrate from the South [illegible] in case negro suffrage shall be established there by Congress, and of [illegible] watch on the frontier for any outbreak or [illegible] in the United States that shall give [illegible] to break up the Government and establish a Southern Confederacy —Virginia Enterprise

ANCIENT CANALS. A paper was recently read before the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which stated that on the southern [illegible] of Lake Superior, in Marquette County, W[illegible], were found remains of long canals and [illegible] constructed by the beavers, for the purpose of transporting their cuttings, consisting of trunks of [illegible] two or three feet long, from the place where the tree had [illegible] to the lodge [illegible] of these canals were 300, 400 and 500 feet long They were generally three feet wide, with an average depth of three feet In order to retain a continuous depth of water, they made dams at certain distances and followed the Chinese plan —to whom the lock was unknown—of drawing their cargo from one level to another

General McClellan

[From the New York Tribune]

There is a maxim, frequently quoted some years ago in this city, during an unfortunate ecclesiastical investigation The scrupulous said "once a bishop always a bishop," shook their heads and voted for suspension instead of deposition We are reminded of this circumstance by seeing it announced that "many democrats" favor General McClellan for the next Presidency "Once a candidate" we suppose they say "always a candidate," and thus the poor General is to be put into that forlorn limbo of hope deferred from which so many great men have been relieved only by gentle and benevolent death As the foe of cruelty, if not the friend of the general, we enter our protest against this amiable contumacy There may be a few men who still think that he would make a good candidate; there may be political gamblers still willing to play upon his chances; and if he were nominated there are those who would vote for him but as he will not be a candidate, as he will not be entered at all for the sw[eepstakes], as there will be no opportunity to make bets upon his majority or minority it is not generous to distract his military mind from the study of fortifications and the science of defensive digging by breathing his name in connection with any election for any office whatever Mercy dictates that when even a major general is in the plight of General McC, he should be severely dropped We could mention several personages, now no longer in the flesh, whose old age was made superlatively wretched by the ill timed determination of mistaken friends, who would keep them before the people as presidential candidates long after the ghost of possible achievement had vanished. The general is too young to enter upon such a career of misery If undisturbed, he may yet write many valuable volumes upon the art of war, with pictures of numerous fortresses which it would be impossible for him to capture He may invent a new projectile. He may design uniforms of novel neatness or of invincible splendor He may make an excellent lecturer at West Point. He may devise a digging machine of great value to farmers But if he is to waste his life in dreaming of the Presidency, in hoping and sighing and hoping again, in constant aspirations and predestinate disappointment, he had better at once fall upon his sword and split his heart, after the Roman fashion

The venerable patriarch who signs the name of "Gideon Welles" to the documents of the Navy Department, has appeared in a new character—that of the American Chesterfield. An indiscreet assistant-engineer in the naval service, Sawyer by name, expressed himself as of the opinion that Andrew Johnson had "violated his pledges to the people, and ought to be impeached" Whereupon he was court-martialed, found guilty of using language disrespectful to the President of the United States, and sentenced to be suspended for one year, on half of "waiting orders" pay, and publicly reprimanded by the Secretary of the Navy. That solemn personage then proceeds to say, as part of the [illegible] said reprimand, that the luckless Sawyer is not a gentleman, for "good breeding," says the Chesterfieldian Chief, "will always enable any individual to express his opinions without giving just cause for offence." The learned Secretary's syllogism runs, therefore, thus: no gentleman will express his opinions and thereby give offence, Sawyer has expressed opinions and offended the President, ergo, Sawyer is no gentleman During the war, one Major Whiting was dismissed from the cavalry service for saying that "Little Mac" would march against Congress and disperse that body, he (Whiting) would go with him, and that President Lincoln was "a d——d ape," and ought to be hung This man Whiting, however, has since been reinstated by Johnson The Welles formula of argument does not reach him evidently

TEN FOLLIES —To think the more a man eats the fatter and stronger he will become

To think the more hours children study in school the faster they learn

To imagine every hour taken from sleep is an hour gained

To act on the presumption that the smallest room is large enough to sleep in

To eat without an appetite, or continue to eat after it has been satisfied, merely to gratify the taste,

To conclude that if exercise is good for the health, the more violent and exhaustive it is, the more good is done

To commit an act which is felt in itself to be prejudicial, hoping that somehow or other it may be done in [illegible] case with perfect impunity.

To argue [illegible] [illegible] good [illegible] without [illegible] ulterior [illegible]

To advise another to take a remedy which you have not tried yourself, without making special inquiry whether all the conditions are alike.

To eat a hearty supper for the pleasure experienced during the brief time it is passing down the throat, at the expense of a whole night of disturbed sleep, and a weary waking in the morning.

MOSBY, THE EX-GUERRILLA —The Washington Star of Oct. 23d, says:

While the railroad meeting was in progress yesterday at Leesburg, a turning of heads in the direction of an individual at the rear of the hall showed that he was a personage of more note than his hat and appearance indicated, and presently the word "Mosby" buzzed about the room told the story The famous partisan chief practices law in Warrenton, and is now attending the Court in session at Leesburg. He knows everybody in his part of Virginia, and has a very good practice It will be remembered that he abandoned law to enter upon his wild military career. In appearance he is[illegible] the lawyer even less than the warrior. Dressed in careless, easy Virginia country style, with white slouch hat, a dust stained bobtailed coat, milk and molasses colored pants and vest, (the latter minus two or three buttons,) a badly adjusted false front tooth, a figure of medium size, close shaven, sunburnt, youthful face, slouched shoulders, quiet, taciturn, undemonstrative in manner, it was not quite easy, to believe that he was the individual whose name and daredevil achievements figured in the papers almost daily during the war.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATE FROM WYOMING.—An election took place in the Territory of Wyoming about two weeks since for Delegate to Congress, Representative to the Territorial Legislature, county officers, &c. The candidates for Delegates to Congress were General John S Casement, contractor for building the Union Pacific Railroad, James A. Evans and G. M O'Brien. General Casement is elected by a handsome majority The following is the vote of Laramie county, in which is located the new city of Cheyenne Casement, 1,261, Evans, 704, O'Brien, 261. There are a few places to hear from, which will increase Casement's majority General Casement is a Republican of the straightest kind a gallant soldier and a true hearted gentleman J R Whitehead was elected Representative, W L Keykendall, Probate Judge, Thomas J Street, District Attorney, J H Creighton, Register of Deeds; L L Badell, Treasurer, D J Sweeney, Sheriff, &c On the location of the county seat, Cheyenne received 1,754 votes, and Fort Sanders 401.

A correspondent of the Sacramento Bee, writing from Washington City, says

Two or three months ago Chase was much talked of as a Republican candidate for President, but the course Ohio has taken undermines him as well as Wade And it seems to be now generally conceded that General Grant's show is altogether the best Awhile ago the Democrats sought earnestly to appropriate Grant to themselves, but they have given him up He would not accept a nomination at their hands Grant talks very freely and I cannot but regard him as a true Republican and sound patriot He very generally speaks of the Democrats as "Copperheads," and "traitors," and [illegible] to have no reserve in his private conversation Accepting Stanton's place was for a time something of a drawback to him, but now Stanton explains that satisfactorily As things now look, Grant will be the next President

APT —Notwithstanding the sixty and odd thousand Chinese in California, it is seldom or never that one of them is seen drunk But they are being contaminated by contact with whiskey, and even their more demure neighbors, the Japanese, are learning to drink, as will be seen by the following from the San Francisco Times

"The Japanese are certainly a very smart people, and accustom themselves at short notice to the manners and customs of this country Last night a subject of the Tycoon was brought to the station house in a state of decided intoxication and being put into a cell with a white man at once pitched into the latter, and before the officers could interfere, had beaten him into a state of submission Truly the Japs learn fast"

Up in Westchester county, New York on the line of the Harlem Railroad, dwells a member of the Society of Friends, who like Henry Ward Beecher, is much given to fondness for all kinds of sport. He shoots one or more wild geese every season, and always keeps a fast horse that he's ready to lay anything on but the whip But he has an odd way of betting He will not gamble he says When he lays a wager it is in this way! "Friend Edward, thee thinks thy horse is faster than mine I value my opinion at twenty dollars Now, if thee values thy opinion at the same rate, we will put the money together and ask our horses what they think of it, and leave the conclusion to them"

POWER OF HUMBUG —An individual owned a small tavern near the field of Waterloo, the scene of the last great action of Napoleon, and was frequently questioned if he did not possess some relics of the battle and he invariably answered in the negative He was very poor and one day while lamenting to a neighbor the annoyances to which travelers subjected him his friend cut him short with—

"Well make one help the other Make some relics"

"But what can I do?" inquired the poor man

"Tell them that Napoleon or Wellington entered your shop during the battle and sat on that chair"

Not long after an English tourist entered the tavern and was told the chair story Next comer was told that Wellington had taken a drink, and the Wellington tumbler was accordingly sold The third gazed with breathless wonder on the nail which Bonaparte hung his hat on The fourth purchased the door posts between which he had entered and the fifth became the happy possessor of the floor on which Napoleon had trodden At last advices the fortunate tavern keeper had not a roof to cover his head and was sitting on a bag of gold in the center of a deep pit formed by selling the earth on which the house stood

An industrious person has discovered that in Andrew Johnson's short speech at Antietam, he used the pronoun "my" ten times and "I" five times while in Mr Lincoln's address at Gettysburg neither of these words occurred

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but on the contrary all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines and no family can be without it after once trying it

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife She had been affected with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature, for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest—when Mr Randall of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it and I purchased two bottles Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonsfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted and it appears astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say [illegible] effect, is not more in use My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house.

Vancouver, March 1, 1867. H COCHRAN

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill July 15 1867

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get rid, trying all the physicians and remedies I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been Yours truly
WILLIAM DOTY

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children Two of them had a very bad cough and cold I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them I was astonished at not hearing them cough again but so it was I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind
Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale But Dr Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction
BELL & PARKER
Druggists Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

DR HENLEY—Dear Sir, I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam which on several afflicted with the same disease has performed wonders I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease
I am Yours truly
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine I was affected with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time; I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast all to no purpose I could get no relief and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody, my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam and I confidently recommend it to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial
I remain yours truly
